

SENATE CONTESTS

BATTLES COMING IN THE NEXT LEGISLATURES.

Twenty-Six Senators to Be Elected This Winter, a Great Majority of Whom Will Be Chosen With Controversy—Vigorous Battles Will Be Witnessed in Eight States—California, Wisconsin, New Jersey and Indiana Will Be the Scenes of Bitter Fights.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Some interesting contests for seats in the United States senate will be witnessed a little over a month hence, when the new legislature assemble. Twenty-six senators will be chosen by 24 states. Indiana will elect two senators, one to succeed Senator Fairbanks, who will resign March 3 next to become vice-president of the United States. Massachusetts will elect two senators, one for the unexpired term of Senator Hoar, which does not end until March 3, 1907. The Pennsylvania legislature has the election of one senator for two terms—the unexpired term of the late Senator Quay, ending March 3 next, and the term of six years from that date. Of the 26 senators to be designated by various states a large majority will come in without controversy. This is because an increasing number of states has adopted the policy of re-electing useful senators, and because a few others have indicated in advance the men of their choice. In the latter class comes Nebraska, whose state convention endorsed Representative Elmer J. Burkett; also Utah and Nevada, where the election of former Representative George Sunderland and Mr. George Nixon, respectively, has been foremaned by the general consent of the party leaders. Vigorous contests are looked for in eight states. One of them will be Indiana. While Senator Beveridge will be re-elected without opposition from his party, the strive for the seat of Senator Fairbanks is very keen. Col. Harry New and several of the Indiana delegation in the house are contesting for the place. The winter will witness a continuation of the bitter senatorial fight which has marked the political history of the Blue Hen state for the greater part of a decade. J. Edward Addicks is still desirous of coming to the senate, but apparently lacks two or three votes. It seems to be taken for granted that Senator John Kean of New Jersey, will be given another term without opposition, but in New York it is not yet quite clear whether there will be opposition to Senator Depew.

Connecticut will have an interesting senatorial fight. As the election there practically means an election for life, the strife to attain the honor will be all the more spirited. There are now two leading candidates, one of them Samuel Fessenden, long a national committeeman, but it is not improbable that others will enter the contest before the legislature meets. The republican elected from Connecticut will succeed Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, who has been in the senate for nearly 24 years.

In Wisconsin, the LaFollette control will probably result in the turning down of Senator Quarles. Sentiment has not crystallized on his successor. Missouri will be the scene of another interesting contest, in this case for the toga of Senator Cockrell. Cyrus P. Walbridge, the defeated candidate for governor, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock and Richard Kerns are among those whose names are mentioned as possible candidates. In California, it is regarded as quite probable that Senator Bard will succeed himself, but he has not yet cleared away all opposition. Washington state will see a warm fight for the seat of Senator Foster. The republican legislature in Montana, it is expected, will elect Thomas H. Carter, who is already a familiar figure in the senate. Altogether, there will be scarcely a half dozen new men on the senate floor after March 3 next. Two of the newcomers will be Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, and Senator W. Murray Crane of Massachusetts, though both men are well known in Washington.

CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS.
Indiana State Conference Meets at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 19.—The thirteenth annual meeting begun here today by the Indiana State Conference of Charities and Correction, promises to be the most notable in the history of the organization and also the most prolific of good results. A four days' program has been arranged and it provides for papers and discussions dealing with local and county charities, the care of the insane, epileptics and feeble-minded, dependent and delinquent children, and the conduct of state charitable and correctional institutions.

Professor Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago, Secretary Alexander, of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, and Ernest P. Bicknell, general superintendent of the Chicago bureau of charities, are among those who will address the meeting.

To Honor Memory of Hoar.
Boston, Mass., Nov. 19.—The Irish organizations of Boston and vicinity will pay a tribute to the memory of the late Senator Hoar at a meeting in Faneuil hall tomorrow evening. The memorial will be held under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, assisted by the Irish National Foresters, the Young Men's Catholic Association, and the Catholic Order of Foresters. Governor Bates, Mayor Collins and others prominent in public life will take part in the meeting. Hon. John F. Fitz Gerald will deliver the memorial oration.

You May Be Cured

544 Garfield Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., October 9, 1902.

After doctoring for eleven months and taking forty-three bottles of medicine and finding no relief for leucorrhea resulting from irritation of a fallen womb I took Wine of Cardui and fourteen bottles cured me. This seems strange but it is the simple truth. Wine of Cardui helped me from the time I began taking it and having heard it praised so highly by friends who had tried it I felt satisfied that it would help me, and it did. It cured me. Took every bit of ache, pain and headache, cramps and dragging down sensations away till I felt young, strong and happy once more. It is a wonderful medicine and a true friend to women. When I look back on the months of torture I had it seems like a hideous nightmare. Wine of Cardui will cure any woman I believe. I have more faith in it than all other medicines combined.

Francis Kingsley

Vice-Pres., Chicago Historical Club.

How can you refuse relief when you know you are growing worse day after day? Shooting pains, irregularity, inflammation and bearing down pains make thousands of women miserable. Why drag through life never enjoying anything? Wine of Cardui has made over 1,500,000 weak and suffering women well and strong. We ask you to go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin to take it at once. Do that and the health Mrs. Kingsley writes about will soon be yours. If you think special directions are needed in your case, address, giving symptoms, Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospitals and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to use it if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this paper as your reference in this paper and send your name to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular price of the bottle is 50c, and one-half size bottles are 25c.
